

Industrial Visit

Civil Engineering Department

LJ Polytechnic, Civil Engineering Department organize a industrial visit for 4th semester students at Altius Vittor. Where students gained knowledge about the materials used for the manufacturing of concrete and the process of RMC plant. They get knowledge about the silos and bins used for the storage of cement and aggregates. They also understand how the concrete is transferred from RMC plant to the construction site.

