

L J Institute of Engineering and Technology

Garba Celebration

The tradition of Garba : A must have cultural activity as a part of curriculum. The Gujarati folk dance is a pompous event organized in the name of 'LJ NO SANEDO' every year. All the students, parents, faculties as well as the people from all over Ahmedabad are the guests of the college. Roundabout 5000+ students comprising college students, families and around 1000+ faculties with their family members actively participate in this program. It is the most awaited event of the year during Navrati seasons and it is popular not only amongst the college students but also in the whole city.

Every year some famous singer and orchestra is invited for the program, the vibe is unmatched! Navratri has been a joyous and favourite festival irrespective of the age group. To make it more lively, the whole campus is decorated according to different themes along with eye catching photo corners. During this festive will plan food stall also for refreshments. Also our team will decorate with different team based photo-booths, so everyone can take snapshot and memorised this program in future. A well-managed parking facility is also arranged along with security. At the end of the event best ones are honoured with prizes.

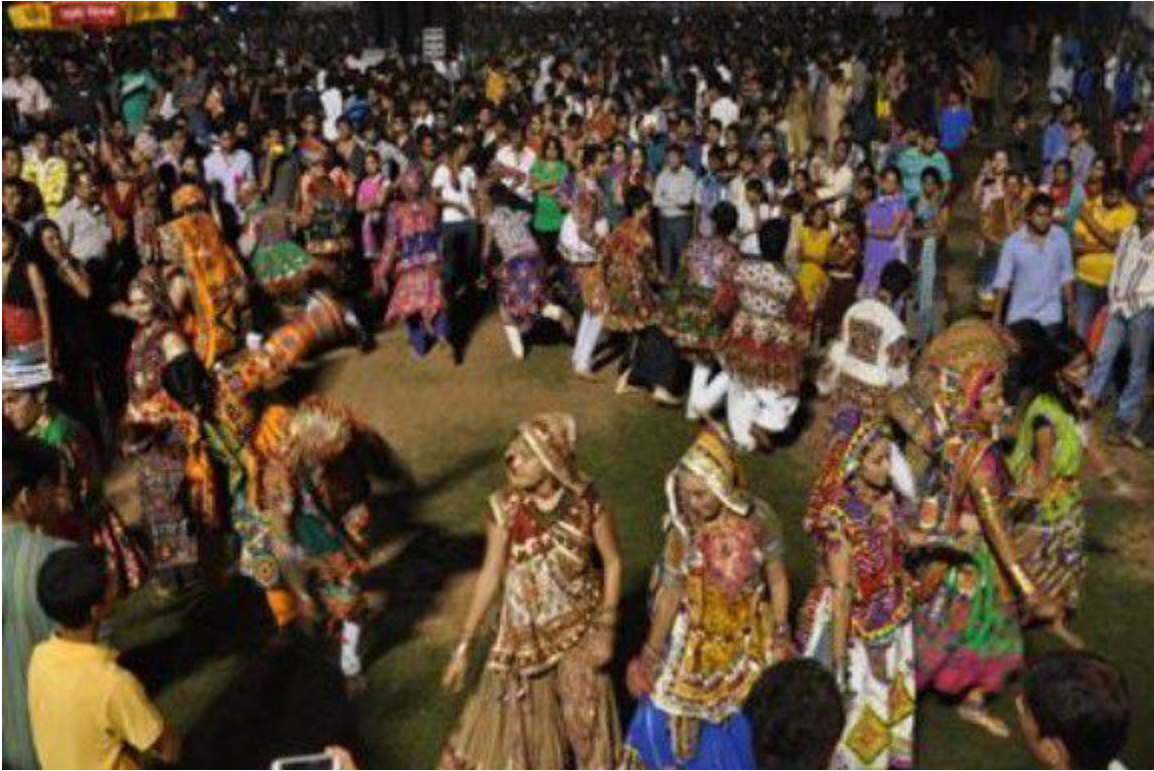

L J Institute of Engineering and Technology

L J Institute of Engineering and Technology

L J Institute of Engineering and Technology

L J Institute of Engineering and Technology

