Blood Donation Camp

Blood donation has always been the most helping gesture to human kind. By donating blood, you not only save several lives. Keeping blood donation as a really important factor, LJIET implemented this beautiful idea and gave it a shape in the name of “Blood Donation Campaign”. In this campaign every year many people participate in the name of good, the campaign is not only limited to college students and faculties, the guests and visitors can take part in the event for a good cause. This campaign is in association with Indian Red Cross Society, Prathama Blood Bank, Dr. Jivaraj Mehta Hospital, etc.

Special arrangements are made for fellow donors. Great sitting arrangement is there and they are even provided with light snacks and tea.
