

Expert Lectures/Seminars/Workshops

LJ Polytechnic organizes expert lectures seminars/workshops for students related to their engineering fields. They get knowledge, applications and skills about their respective area of interest.

All the departments invite mentors/experts to give industrial exposure and share their experience to the students. It develops more learning interest among the students. LJ Polytechnic has minimized the gap between industry and institute.

